Errata

Information on revisions to RSL and Rockschoool publications can be downloaded from the 'Errata' tab in the 'Shop' section of the RSL website (www.rslawards.com) on the product page for each book. A copy of the errata documentation can also be found in the downloadable content. Candidates should check for errata before commencing study for a grade, and periodically thereafter.

Syllabus Guide

All candidates should read the accompanying syllabus guide when using this book. This can be downloaded from the RSL website (www.rslawards.com).

Downloadable Content

To download (or re-download) audio and/or other downloadable content, visit the RSL website (www.rslawards.com) and click the "SIGN IN" tab on the top right of the website – this will allow you to either sign into an existing account or create a new account if you don't have one. Once you are signed in to your account you will be able to download any relevant content from your secure user area.

Dropcard Issues

If your Rockschoool product was supplied with a 'dropcard' (a plastic card the size of a credit card on which a download URL and download code are printed) and you have issues accessing your downloadable package, please do the following:

1. Visit <http://dropcards.com/help>
2. Click "Submit a request" (top right of page) to open a help ticket with Dropcards.
3. Complete the form by providing your name, email address, the download URL shown on your dropcard and the access code shown on your dropcard.
4. When asked "Which problem best matches yours?", choose "I'm having trouble redeeming my download".
5. You may also provide any other information you think relevant in the "Description" field (e.g. an error code shown on the page).
6. Dropcards aim to respond to trouble tickets by the end of the next business day, so please be patient. If you contact them on a Friday, for example, your card should be reactivated by the end of the business day on Monday. Please be aware that Dropcards are an American company working in the US Eastern Standard Time (EST) time zone.
